

ABOUT OUR SCHOOLS

ALTA VISTA COMMUNITY CHARTER AND EDUCATION CENTER

173 OAK STREET
(530) 745-1220

Principal of Alta Vista Community Charter School: Patricia Leftridge

Director of Preschool Programs: Jennifer Lewandowski

Alta Vista School is the oldest of the five schools in the Auburn Union School District. Alta Vista was built in 1907. Prior to 2008, Alta Vista was an elementary school serving grades K-8. Currently the campus is being used for the Alta Vista Community Charter School K-5, Preschool education and Head Start Infant Program.

AUBURN ELEMENTARY

11400 LARIAT RANCH ROAD
(530) 887-1958

Principal: Sam Schug

Auburn Elementary is a Transitional Kindergarten through fifth grade school located in the north area of town. The school opened in July of 1995 on a multi-track, year-round schedule. In 2001-02 the school returned to a traditional schedule. The school features a complete library, up-to-date computer lab, life lab garden area, playground shade/misting area and a courtyard pavilion area.

ROCK CREEK SCHOOL

3050 BELL ROAD
(530) 885-5189

Principal: Suzanne Flint

Rock Creek School, located in North Auburn, was selected as a California Distinguished School in 1997. This singular distinction reflects the ongoing commitment that is shared by parents and staff to ensure that all students are successful, lifelong learners. Although Rock Creek School was originally built in 1965, the classrooms and computer lab were modernized in 2003 followed by the administration building and multipurpose room which were completed in 2006. The school serves Preschool through fifth grade students. Partnerships between school and community organizations offer additional programs such as the Life Lab and Community Garden, Power Hour – After School Tutoring (in partnership with the Boys and Girls Club).

SKYRIDGE SCHOOL

800 PERKINS WAY
(530) 885-7019

Principal: Andy Wood

Skyridge School, was selected as a California Distinguished School in 2013; and has involved and supportive parents and a dedicated staff. The school is located in a residential area of south Auburn. The school celebrated its completion in 1994 but its roots go back to the old Auburn Grammar School, the original school in Auburn. One of the distinguishing characteristics is the central park-like quad bordered by the library, multi-purpose room and classrooms. The school serves Transitional Kindergarten through fifth grade students.

E.V. CAIN STEM CHARTER SCHOOL

150 PALM AVENUE
(530) 823-6106

Principal: Cindy Giove

Vice Principal: Steve Schaffer

Vice Principal: Tiasha Garcia

E.V. Cain STEM Charter School is the middle school serving students in sixth through eighth grades. The school was constructed in 1949 but underwent extensive remodeling from 1996 to 2001 when facilities for P.E., science, music, and art were completed. E.V. Cain enjoys a reputation as having a strong academic and elective program and is proud of its many successes: Counseling program, Positive Recognition Program, athletics, Power Hour – After School Tutoring (in partnership with the Boys and Girls Club) and drama productions. E.V. Cain became a STEM charter school in 2010 focusing on Science, Technology, Engineering and Math.